Congress Will Seek Status Of Bomb Secrets

Plan Moves Aimed Toward Tightening Security Of Nation

By FRANK ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Congress moves today toward tightening U. S. security to prevent theft of atom and hydrogen bomb secrets along the lines of the Fuchs spy case.

The joint congressional atomic "watch dog" committee holds two hearings.

To Hear Hoover
First, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover will tell behind closed doors how Communist scientist Emil Fuchs stole atomic secrets and whether the nation's hydrogen bomb plans are safe.

Second, wartime atomic chief Leslie Groves will be questioned at a public hearing this afternoon on precautions now being taken to safeguard vital atomic information.

Dr. Fuchs, German-born, British-naturalized scientist, was arrested in London Friday and promptly confessed the theft of U. S. Atom and Hydrogen secrets for Russia. He will be given a public hearing next Friday, when his confession may be made public.

Hoover is expected to tell the "watch dog" group how to erect a security barrier which will eliminate Russian spy rings.

Developments
These developments came as:
1. Sen. Jenner (R) Ind. called for a thorough housecleaning in every branch of our government which deals with the security of our people.

2. Influential Senators urged tightening of immigration and the displaced persons statute to slam the door on foreign agents allegedly sneaking into the U. S.

3. A minute record was demanded in the background of the 400 German scientists engaged in (Continued on Page Seventeen)

PA NEWS OBSERVES

Some ideas of the kind of weather that has been experienced so far this winter is seen in the fact that work has been in progress on erection of posts for a guard rail along the King's Chapel road to Pulaski during the past few weeks.

Tests are being made in the vicinity where the new bridge will be constructed across the Shippery Rock creek, near Rose Point on the new route of Highway 422. The makeup of the terrain is being tested preliminary to foundation for the bridge.

Ponds around the county, which were quite low a couple of months ago, are now well filled up. Most of them had a thin coating of ice over the surface yesterday, but there was no indication of any early skating possibilities. Today's milder weather will probably clear all of them of the icy coating.

Farmers tell PA News that so far this winter the ground has not been frozen to any extent.

With the good weather of yesterday, motorists appeared to be taking advantage of the situation to do a little touring, at least locally. The new Butler highway from Dixie Inn east was being tried out by quite a throng of motorists in the afternoon, mostly from the Butler district.

Jaywalkers in the downtown sector are being "lagged" today by the boy scouts who are taking over the city government in connection with national boy scout week. No fines are being collected, however.

Propose Single Program To Avert Hydrogen Bomb Race

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Sen. Sparkman (D) Ala., proposed today that sponsors of six different Senate resolutions to avert a hot war agree on a single program to prevent a hydrogen bomb race.

Sparkman testifies today before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee on one such resolution, sponsored by himself and 10 other senators. All six proposals would seek to strengthen the United Nations, Sparkman said.

"The hydrogen bomb has brought a quickening in the thinking on the part of all seeking ways to avert an atomic arms race. In view of this newest development, we must redouble our efforts to prevent atomic catastrophe."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Diplomatic quarters believe that Russia's aggressive intentions, if any will be revealed no earlier than May.

In the meantime, the Kremlin is expected to maintain, if not intensify its war of nerves and internal penetration both in the Far East and in Europe.

Tito First Target
By spring, it is believed, the Western Powers will have to determine whether they will give military support to Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito. He is expected to be the first target of any Soviet aggressive move both to seal that flank and to put down his insurrection against Moscow's dictator.

While State's Attorney Lorin W. Willis and chief defense lawyer David Goldstein worked over their final pleas, Carol "relaxed" in the red-brick Fairfield County jail.

No bids were made for the city airport.

The bid was for the land, buildings and all equipment of the golf course.

During the meeting Attorney Frank Moretti, representing golfers, requested the city to consider the recreational value of the course and not to sell it.

City Offices Are Held By Scouts

Take Over Various Offices For Day

New Castle's Boy Scout city council today voted to enlarge the city incinerator at a cost of $50,000, paint and improve Cascade park, route all truck traffic on 422 by-pass, and construct a new city recreation hall.

The young gentlemen of the various boy scout troops in the Kuskuski district took over the reins of city government for the day in connection with national boy scout week currently being celebrated to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the founding of the boy scout movement in America.

Scouts in uniform have been dismissed from school today and many of them crowded the council chambers during the regular Monday meeting of the governing body. Scout officials sat with the elected and appointed officials that the young gentlemen were to replace.

Mayor Haven sworn in Willis Peacock, who in turn administered the oath to councilmen Bob Brinton, Raymond Cline, Treasurer Stanley Smith, and Controller Dwight Ficus. Appointments to other city offices were approved by the council.

Mayor Haven welcomed the officers and their many companions to council. He also expressed words of commendation to the scout leaders for directing and guiding the young men, one of whom, according to the mayor, may become "President of United States."

Huge Shipload Of Toys Being Shipped To Children Overseas

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—(INS)—A shipload of happiness for the children of Europe starts overseas tomorrow jam-packed with more than 900,000 new toys unselfishly contributed by the youngsters of America.

The veritable flood of toys has been pouring into Philadelphia at the rate of 250,000 daily in what American Legion National Commander George N. Craig called a "phenomenal response" to the Legion's toy drive.

Tomorrow afternoon, the toy-laden Flagship S. S. American Defender will set sail with the initial shipment of over three million toys for the long-deprived children of war-ravaged Europe.

The boy, Bernard Clyde Hollingshead, died yesterday in Poly-clinic hospital from a fractured skull suffered when he slipped and struck his head against a street curb February 2.

The boy was playing outside his home when the accident occurred. Two unsuccessful head operations were performed in three days. Hospital officials said Bernard was unconscious most of the time.

His father, the Rev. Fred C. Hollingshead, is pastor of the Hummel street church of the Brethren.

Claims Russia Has Exploded H-Bomb

LONDON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Editor Kenneth De Courcy, whose prediction of an atomic explosion in Russia last year later was confirmed by President Truman, said today that Russia has built three hydrogen bombs and has exploded one of them.

De Courcy, editor of the private publication, "Intelligence Digest," also said:

"On March 3 or 4, barring accidents or deliberate changes, it is known another atomic explosion is scheduled to take place and this will be followed by ten other experiments soon thereafter."

Phone Strike Delay Likely To Be Asked

By JOHN BOOTH (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—High government sources said today that federal conciliators probably will ask for a two-week postponement of the impending nationwide telephone strike.

Conciliation Service Chief Cyrus S. Ching is studying detailed reports from field representatives in more than 30 local bargaining sessions.

Ching said last week that after receiving these reports he would be able to determine what further government steps were indicated to head off the walkout scheduled for 6 a. m. Wednesday, local time.

In a fresh blast at the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., and its Bell system affiliates, President Joseph A. Beine of the CIO of Communications Workers of America said that the walkout of 100,000 workers "seems inevitable."

Beine pointed out that another 220,000 phone workers are pledged to observe picket lines which, he said, will be thrown around nearly every exchange in the nation.

Blast Rips Off Front Wall Of Gangster's Home

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—(INS)—An explosion ripped off the front wall of gangster Mickey Cohen's West Los Angeles home early today.

First reports said neither Mickey, target of at least two known previous attempts on his life, nor his wife, Lavonne, who were asleep, was injured.

The explosion rocked homes within a mile radius and shattered windows of nearby residences as well as waking up scores of persons.

The Cohen housekeeper, Kathryn Jones, said the blast ripped away the front part of Mickey's elaborate home.

Police theorized the blast was caused by a bomb either placed or tossed against the southeast corner of the Cohen place, but no bomb fragments were found immediately.

A steady rain hampered officers in their investigation.

Investigators said explosives may have been tossed against the building from a car driving through the circular driveway, which passes near the spot where the blast apparently was centered.

Action Taken By President After It Became Clear Miners Were Not Reporting

Over 300,000 Miners Not Working; President Truman Names Fact-Finding Board; Board To Report If Coal Emergency Exists

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (International News Service Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Truman today invoked the Taft-Hartley law in the coal strike and took the first step toward obtaining a court injunction to end the walkout.

Mr. Truman set the emergency anti-strike machinery of the law in motion a few hours after it became clear that John L. Lewis' 400,000 soft coal miners were not reporting to the pits even on the basis of the three-day week they had been working since Dec. 5.

Reports from the coal fields showed that more than 300,000 members of the UMW were idle in the nine principal soft coal producing states.

By nightfall the stoppage is expected to be virtually 100 per cent effective.

The president named a three-man fact-finding board to investigate the coal situation and report to him by Feb. 13 whether a national emergency exists.

After he receives the board's report, the chief executive can then direct the attorney general to seek a federal court order to return the miners to work for 80 days.

Mr. Truman's action today applied only to the soft coal industry and did not cover the 80,000 miners employed in Pennsylvania anthracite fields.

Chairman Named
The president appointed David L. Cole, Paterson, N. J., lawyer, as chairman of the fact-finding panel.

Other members of the board are W. Willard Wirtz, Northwestern University professor and former chairman of the old war labor board, and John Dunlop, Harvard University professor.

In his executive order creating the board, Mr. Truman stated that the bituminous coal dispute, if permitted to continue, will imperil the national health and safety.

The miners generally stayed away from the pits today after Lewis rejected the White House plan for settling the prolonged coal controversy without using the machinery of the Taft-Hartley law which Mr. Truman opposes and wants repealed.

On Saturday, Lewis rejected the president's request for a 70-day truce and normal production and turned down his request for sub-

Bus, Car Crash; 24 Are Injured

MIAMI, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Twenty-four persons were injured, three of them seriously, early today when an automobile and a Miami Transit Lines bus collided.

Dr. Edmund Cava, an intern at Jackson Memorial hospital and a passenger on the bus, said the two vehicles crashed and bounced apart. The impact hurled the car over a sidewalk and the bus crashed into the front of the Miami Parcel Delivery Service.

Hospital authorities said Bus Driver James L. Williams, 29, was in critical condition with back injuries. Also listed as critically injured were Paul Ruth, driver of the car, and Miss Ruth Ellen Taber, a passenger in the automobile.

Civilian Agencies Adding Employees Says Sen. Byrd

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Economy-minded Sen. Byrd (D) Va., said today that civilian agencies of the government aren't following the example set by defense department cuts in payrolls.

Byrd, who dutifully reports on federal employment trends every month, said that hiring of new workers by civilian agencies turned "sharply upward" in December, with an over-all increase averaging more than 143 persons per day.

Increase of 4,443
He said the increase of 4,443 in civilian agency personnel in that month offset by nearly 50 per cent a cut of 9,246 in civilian employment. (Continued on Page Two)

Berlin Blockade Is Resumed Again Today

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Russian border guards reversed their field again today and resumed the slowdown of truck traffic between Berlin and western Germany without warning or apparent reason.

Trucks were passed through the Helmstedt checkpoint at a rate of four to six an hour compared with the once-normal rate of 20 to 30. A backlog began building up.

For over two weeks the Soviet have been using the tactic of slowing down traffic, turning the "pressure" on or off as easily as a faucet.

Mark another one up on the calendar, another mile on the road and it doesn't seem any different, the years aren't a heavy load. Another birthday observance, a special meal I would say, to mark the fact that I'm older and it's just I have seen, for in those years there's been lots of fun and occasional changes of scene. A lot of friends down the roadway have wished me the usual things, but you have to take what is booked for you, in the nature of earthly things.

Seek To Learn Cause Of Fatal Plane Crash

Funeral Services For W. Keith McAfee Held This Afternoon

Government officials are today attempting to ascertain the cause of the fatal plane crash near Tallahassee, Florida, Thursday, Feb. 2, when W. Keith McAfee of Redlands, Calif., lost his life.

Funeral services were held for Mr. McAfee this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Trinity Episcopal church here. He formerly lived in New Castle and headed the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company here. Several years ago he built a plant for the company in Redlands, Calif., and has been chairman of the board since Universal merged with the Rundle Corporation.

In reporting the accident the newspaper of Redlands, the "Daily Facts" quoted John Bratton, a mechanic of Quincy airport in Florida.

A heavy windstorm swept the airport early yesterday afternoon. The air in the vicinity was turbulent and flying at the field was temporarily suspended, waiting an improvement in the weather. Conditions prevailing suggested that a mild cold front may have passed during the early afternoon.

Mr. Bratton went on to say that he and others looked up and saw an airplane which they were certain was Mr. McAfee's. It was an estimated altitude of from 5000 to 6000 feet. Presently it passed from view, being cut off by clouds. It is thought the plane may have flown into a cumulus (thunderhead) cloud or near it.

Just what happened in the air may never be known. The wings were torn off the plane and the body of it broke into two parts. The scene of the crash was woody pine country near the Georgia-Florida line, inland from the Gulf of Mexico.

Plane Burned

Carl Haire, who lives near where the plane came down said he heard the engine cough twice overhead and looked up. He saw the parts of the ship coming down from the clouds. The main part burned.

Mr. McAfee was a flying enthusiast and in November 1949 purchased a Cessna 195, a four seat, 300 horsepower plane. He qualified for a commercial pilot's license and left Redlands on January 8 for his transcontinental flight.

He had attended a meeting of the board of directors of the National Association of Manufacturers in Boca Raton, Florida. Leaving Boca Raton he headed for New Orleans.

Mr. McAfee was in New Castle about two weeks ago.

Byrd had one bright word, however.

The net decrease of 4,803 in all executive branches resulting from the drastic defense cuts brought total employment down to 1,981,156—a new low since 1942.

Byrd prepared and issued his figures as chairman of the joint committee on reduction of non-essential federal expenditures. He is a leading Congressional fighter for a balanced budget and curtailment of all unnecessary government spending.

Campaign In Britain Begun By Churchill

LEEDS, England, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Winston Churchill called upon Great Britain's electorate to "set the people free" by voting Conservative in the British elections February 23.

Britain's wartime prime minister opened his own countrywide campaign at the Leeds town hall with a speech attacking what he called "Socialist doctrinaires and fanatics."

Churchill assailed a "plethora of national controls" and the alleged failure of nationalization. He summarized British Socialism under the present government of Premier Clement Attlee as "a prolongation of wartime conditions in time of peace."

The ex-premier said: "We have got now to arise to the occasion and overcome all the perils to our life and independence."

Cause of Plight
"There is at this moment no foothold where anyone in Britain or those who watch us from outside can say: 'This is solid ground.'"

A main cause of our present plight has been the waste, disorder and uncertainty arising from the Socialist policy of nationalization... which already has proved a total failure.

"But even more injurious to the national economy is a second dose of nationalization with which we are menaced."

"If the Socialists can get hold of investment stocks and shares they would be able to sway, if they chose, the market with them, so as to dominate the fortunes of what is left of free industry."

"This part of a plan by which Attlee and his minority of convinced Socialists hope they will become effective masters of the whole field of our national life."

Health Talks

City Health Superintendent

UNCLE SAM AND SANTA KLAUS

It seems natural for us to want something for nothing. Santa Klaus has a bag full of presents for us. We do not care where he gets them and no one asks him about the cost.

Santa Klaus is fine for youngsters but they should know better when they grow up.

The idea of something for nothing is as old as the hills and is as foolish as ever.

Good health is desirable. It means lots of expense and good care.

Uncle Sam has nothing to give us that he does not get from us. He takes it from us and spends it for us.

Money wisely used for good health is well spent.

If people spent their money wisely and look after themselves properly, Uncle Sam will not need so much money.

LEARN ROPES
CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Rope climbing—not Indian style, but for fire safety—is now compulsory for most Harvard freshmen. All students living above the ground floor of non-fireproof dormitories have to practice climbing down 12-foot ropes in the gymnasium, similar to fire-ropes installed in each dorm room.

SELL STAIRWAY
PORTLAND, Ore.—(INS)—The Portland city hall sold a 54-year-old circular stairs to a woman for $85. It will go into her garden, as a stairway between two levels.

Cost Of Living Drop Is Reported

HARRISBURG, Feb. 6.—(INS)—The cost of living in Pennsylvania dropped 2.6 per cent for the three months ended December 16.

A survey of the Department of Labor and Industry today based its findings on the retail prices moderate-income families in 16 major Pennsylvania cities paid for essential commodities.

The department said it was the lowest point reached since March 1948. Declines in food, clothing and house furnishings were chiefly responsible for the slight drop but rent, light and fuel costs continued to climb, according to the survey.

The price drop in food was general except for coffee, milk and some green vegetables out of season. This was not sufficient to bolster other sagging prices.

Rents went up two-tenths per cent, a continuation of the ascent that started in December, 1946. The 1.1 per cent light and fuel jump brought this necessity to an all time high.

LOOKING AT LIFE

tion of his own hands, died of exhaustion and remorse.

The monster, repentant for his crimes, disappeared in the darkness of the northern seas and was never heard of again.

That, in brief, is the synopsis of the Frankenstein story, as Dr. Wilbur L. Cross, the late educator, historical and Governor of Connecticut, condensed it.

The book itself was dubbed by its author "as horrible a tale as anyone has ever read."

It was intended "to speak to the mysterious fears of our nature and awaken thrilling horror—one to make the reader dread to look around, to curdle the blood and quicken the beatings of the heart."

Not being a soothsayer, Mrs. Shelley KNEW she said, that never, in this world could anything happen that ever remotely resembled the story of Frankenstein and his monster.

INTRODUCING YOUR HUSBAND

"My husband has been working in South America for almost two years. During that time, I have made many new friends. Please advise me how to introduce him to them—some are young men, some young women; others elderly men and women."

Answer: To woman friends, both young and old, with whom you are in the first-name stage of friendship, and who consequently have heard you innumerable times speak of "John," introduce him thus: "May, this is John."

To those who do not know him even by hearsay, "Mary, this is my husband," adding, "This is Miss Smith," so that John will know how to address her. In presenting him to those not among your "first-name" friends: Mrs. Jones or Miss Jones, this is my husband."

Men are always presented to women; never women to men. Do not introduce your husband as "Mr. Blank" except to the merest acquaintances and formal business associates. He should be spoken of and introduced as either "my husband" or "John."

He should be presented to elderly men: "Mr. Smith, this is my husband." To men of his own age, it does not matter whose name is mentioned first.

Question: Is it still considered vulgar to place elbows on the table?

Answer: Elbows should never be placed on the table when one is eating. They should, as a general rule, be kept out of sight during meals. But the practice of putting them on the table may be permitted between courses or during tete-a-tetes while demi-tasse is being drunk after luncheon or dinner, when one has to lean forward to hear or be heard.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Makes Employees Aware Of U.S. Taxes

TEANECK, N. J., Feb. 6.—(INS)—Alexander Summer, head of a real estate firm in Teaneck, makes sure that his 100 employees enjoy the pain of taxpaying.

On the theory that payroll tax deductions make taxpaying so painless that most workers think "the other fellow" is paying their taxes, he has developed a system to restore "awareness" of high federal taxes.

So he pays each employee off in full. Then the employee has to make his payment in cash for unemployment insurance, social security and income taxes.

"A new meaning has been added," he said.

Of Rhode Island's 1,248 square miles, 1,067 are land surface.

How Important Is This Man's "YES"?

J. J. ALEXANDER

He's the man whose "yes" helped to put an ambitious boy through medical school.

Another occasion, his friendly "yes" started a man in business and today that man's business is a growing, paying proposition.

And then there was the time his "yes" enabled a worried family to get under a stack of unpaid bills and his friendly advice put that family's budget on a sound, secure basis.

This man whose "yes" has brought peace of mind to thousands of people by helping them get a fresh start is the manager of the Personal Finance Co. office in this city.

His job is to make personal loans, and to keep the transactions on a business-like basis. His years of experience with Personal have taught him to respect the honesty of local people—friends, relatives, or employer are not brought into the picture.

Don't borrow unnecessarily. But if a loan—for a month or a year, or longer—is the sensible thing for you (and you're the judge) the YES-MAN will appreciate the chance to say "yes."

You can telephone him... or drop in to see him at the Personal Finance Company office. He says "yes" to 4 out of 5.

Plans Are Made For Oak Street P.T.A. In Future

Members of the Executive Board of the Oak Street Parent-Teachers' Association met in the teachers' room of the school, Miss Gail Cooper, teacher representative, and John Cornelius, principal, were also present.

A letter has been sent to the school board as was voted upon at the last P.T.A. meeting. The next school board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 15. Two representatives will be appointed at the next meeting on February 14.

The P.T.A. trophy won in the Armistice Day parade will be displayed at the next meeting.

More Publications
At the recent County Council meeting, Mrs. Glenn Patterson announced that not enough publications are being bought in P.T.A. Publicity chairman, Mrs. Gail Borst, said that she would have the magazines on display and take further orders.

On February 20, the Oak Street group has been assigned a part of the program for County Council. In cooperation with the local Red Cross chapter, the Oak Street P.T.A. will present another phase of Red Cross work in the Junior Red Cross art program, which is carried on in our country and in foreign countries. Slides will be shown concerning the work now being done.

The film "Fight for Better Schools" will return on February 13-16-17 for the benefit of those who did not see it when shown before.

Mrs. Clair Shaeffer, membership chairman, announced that the deadline for the membership drive will be March 31. The group is greatly increased and others are urged to enroll.

A new Cub scoutmaster has been obtained for Troop 12, with Francis Bender taking charge in the near future. The group will appoint three representatives as committee members.

City Council
A City Council P.T.A. organization meeting will be held at Rose Avenue in the near future. The president of two executive board delegates will represent Oak Street. The date will be announced later.

At the March meeting of the unit the Brownie scouts will have a booth. February 14 being National Founder's Day, the program for that meeting will be appropriate for the occasion. All past presidents have been sent special invitations to attend this meeting. A representative from County Council will give a short talk on the history of Founder's Day.

Brother Of Local Man Is Attorney In Noted Trial

Local interest in the trial of Carl E. Bolton, who is charged with complicity in the shot-gun attack on Walter Reuther, president of the U.A.W., on April 20, 1948, at Detroit, is heightened by the fact that the chief trial lawyer in the case is Joseph G. Rashid, brother of Samuel J. Rashid, of 930 Hazel street, president of New Castle Lions club.

Just 36 years old today, the Detroit attorney faces his biggest test in trying to secure the conviction of Bolton. He is an able attorney and has recently secured convictions in several notable Detroit trials.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 6.—A man who has been making a strictly professional study of Hollywood legs for the past 15 years believes there is one pair which has gone too long overlooked.

They belong to June Haver, and the man who is willing to stake his reputation on their superior shape and beauty is Wilfred Cline, a Warner Bros. director of photography.

"The trouble with June's legs," said Cline, "is that she's so cute everywhere else people are likely to forget her legs."

Tough Way To Work
Cline recently completed a several weeks' assignment, wherein he spent practically every day from 9 to 6 looking at Miss Haver's legs. In technicolor, too, for her newest musical role with Gordon Macrae in "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady."

"That girl has legs that Petty and Varga could use as a model," the photographer went on. "Only they are better proportioned than the Petty and Varga girl legs. And they're real, too."

Cline agrees Betty Grable has lush limbs, and that Marlene Dietrich has, too. "Miss Grable's are what I'd call pert," he said, "and Miss Dietrich's are sexy. Miss Haver's are sheer beauty in line and design. And there's not another pair like them in Hollywood—maybe not in the whole world, for all I know."

Would Refuse
As a cameraman, Cline admits there's a lot more to screen beauty than what a lady stands on. "But with the emphasis that American males put on the legs of their females, they become pretty important."

If he had to pick the ten actresses with the most beautiful legs in Hollywood, Cline wouldn't do it.

He will commit himself only on Miss Haver.

Splain Is Elected Democratic State Committee Head

HARRISBURG, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Maurice Splain, Jr., of Oil City, on Saturday was unanimously elected chairman of the Democratic State committee succeeding Philip Mathews, of Carlisle.

The 37-year-old protégé of U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers forecast a victorious year for Democratic voters.

He promised to knit the party into a militant vote-getting organization in time for the general election November 7.

The fight will be carried, he added, to every corner of Pennsylvania.

"Every one inch of ground is fighting ground," he declared in his acceptance speech. From the union of strong local organizations we can build our state party and elect our state candidates."

Splain's brief speech heralded an early drive on behalf of Richardson D. Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer, understood to be the choice of more than 48 county leaders for governor.

Await Report Of Brain Examination Of Accused Slayer

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 6.—(INS)—Defense Counsel W. Hensel Brown today awaited the report of a brain examination given Edward L. Gibbs before shaping further strategy in the defense of the 25-year-old self-admitted slayer of Marian Louise Baker January 10.

The 21-year-old Franklin and Marshall college stenographer's body was found beneath a cottage four days after she dropped from sight.

Gibbs, a business student at P & M at the time of the crime, was examined for 40 minutes Saturday at Philadelphia on an encephalograph at Philadelphia General hospital.

The outcome of the test will guide the course the defense will take when the trial opens March 13 in Lancaster county court.

Dr. Edward Strecker, prominent Philadelphia psychiatrist retained by the defense, will interview Gibbs after the results of the test have been returned.

Murder-Suicide Victims Will Be Buried Together

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Two coffins in a Pittsburgh funeral home today held the bodies of a man and his wife, who were victims of a murder-suicide that followed a six-year marital separation.

Probably, after funeral services tonight, they will be buried in the same plot tomorrow at the request of their two children, Marion and Charles.

Homicide detectives said 43-year-old Charles Stull and his wife, Anna, 43, had tried reconciliation several times in the last six years, but each time Stull was ordered to leave because of excessive drinking.

Saturday he returned to the Stull home "for his clothes." His daughter, Marion, 19, left her parents in the kitchen while she went upstairs to gather his clothing.

Then, according to police, she heard her mother scream: "Marion, Marion—he's going to shoot me."

She ran downstairs, just in time to see her mother collapse at the stairs. Her father fled while she flung a wastebasket at him.

Police found Charles Stull's body with a bullet in the temple, stretched across a hilltop path near the Stull home. Mrs. Stull had been shot four times in the chest and once in the abdomen.

Coraopolis Woman Suffocates To Death

COORAOPOLIS, Pa., Feb. 6.—(INS)—A short circuit in a heating pad was blamed today for the death from suffocation Mrs. Elsie Beck Reynolds, 37, in Coraopolis.

Her body was found yesterday morning adjacent to the charred bed from which her 81-year-old mother, Mrs. Frank Beck, had dragged her. Flames and dense smoke forced Mrs. Beck from the room before she could rescue her daughter.

Members of the family believe the defect in the heating pad caused the fire. Firemen are investigating.

The value of the 342 chests of tea dumped onboard at the Boston Tea party was 18,000 British pounds.

Pittsburgh Taxi Drivers May Strike

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—(INS)—AFL taxi drivers were taking a strike vote today in Pittsburgh in a dispute with management of the Yellow Cab company over pensions, wages, hours and working conditions.

Negotiations ceased yesterday. At meetings this afternoon and tonight some 1,100 members of Local 128, AFL taxi cab drivers are expected to vote approval for the union's executive board to call a strike.

The company's contract with the cab drivers expires at midnight.

Jewish Veterans To Have Meeting

Treacle originally was a medical compound used as a remedy against snake-bites and poison generally.

Held For Death Of Pittsburgh Landlady

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—(INS)—George Stepp, 53, was being held today in Pittsburgh in connection with the murder of his 55-year-old landlady whom he told police "I've hated for a long time... because she always was nagging me."

Police said Stepp has confessed that he fatally beat Mrs. Florence Fuge, who also is his cousin, following an argument in her bedroom late Saturday night.

Plan Industrial Meeting In June

Pointing towards a state industrial conference to be held in the Schenley Hotel in Pittsburgh, June 10, the first monthly meeting of the Board of Governors of the Western Pennsylvania Industrial Conference, was held in the Pittsburgh Y.M.C.A.

The group represents the industrial committee of the state Y.M.C.A., and industrial leaders of the Tri-State area. Harry Rosen, assistant personnel director of the Union Switch and Signal Co., of Swissvale, general chairman of the 1949 conference conducted the session.

This area is represented by W. Earl Leslie, manager of the Leslie Employment Service, who will have charge of the conference reports for this program.

Rev. Cyril Smith Heads Erie Mission

Word has been received from Erie, that Rev. Cyril A. Smith, former superintendent of the City Rescue Mission, 17 South Mercer street, has been named superintendent of the Erie City Rescue Mission. Rev. Smith was named to the position upon the death of Rev. C. A. Blackmore, who headed the Erie Mission for many years.

Named as assistant superintendent of the Erie Mission, is Rev. Archie Gibson, former superintendent of the local mission. Mr. Gibson has been in Erie for a number of years while Rev. Smith has been there since last July.

DIMES CHAIRMAN

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—(INS)—Though confined to bed and in a cast as a result of infantile paralysis, Hugh Russell Weaver, Jr., 13, took the job of chairman for coin card contributions in this year's March of Dimes in Chattanooga. Hugh is an authority on polio, because he was stricken with the disease at the age of 9, and since that time has had his treatment, including several operations, completely financed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A canny Quaker down Philadelphia way erected a sign on an empty lot opposite his farm that proclaimed, "I will present this property to anyone who is really satisfied." A wealthy merchant, driving by, said to himself, "I may as well take advantage of this quixotic fool's generosity. I'm rich. I have a beautiful wife. My employees are afraid of me. Obviously I qualify." So he asked for the lot.

"And is thee really satisfied?" asked the Quaker. "Obviously," said the merchant, listing his possessions. "Friend," concluded the Quaker, "Since thee is so completely satisfied, what does thee want with my lot?"

A lady stomped into a fruit market near Bloomingdale's and demanded a pound of grapes. "My husband eats them regularly," she explained. "Have these been sprayed by any kind of poison?" "No, mum," answered the clerk. "You'll have to get that at a drug-store."

Income Taxes Paid Early In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Collector of Internal Revenue Stanley Granger can't explain the early flood of income tax returns reaching his office in Pittsburgh from the 25 western Pennsylvania counties in his area.

Granger believes the peak might be reached next week, instead of about March 15—the usual rush period.

He speculated the coal strike and three-day week may have prompted many miners to seek prompt repayments on last year's tax. On the other hand, he noted many of the returns received are from persons who have to pay additional taxes.

LONG BRIDGE UMATILLA, Ore.—(INS)—A miracle of railway engineering is known to few people, in this land of magnificent distances. That's because Union Pacific passenger trains between Umatilla and Spokane cross the Snake river over the longest and highest curved railroad trestle in the U. S. The span, 300 feet over normal river level, is 3,290 feet long and uses 800 tons of steel and 17,000 yards of concrete.

MAP PROGRESS SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(INS)—Systematic progress in making an accurate topographic map of Illinois was accomplished during last year, according to Dr. M. M. Leighton, chief of the state geological survey. The project, undertaken in co-operation with the U. S. Geological Survey, is said by Dr. Leighton to be nearly 90 per cent completed.

Edward M. Fisher Honored At Party

Tribute To Retired Assistant Foreman

Employees and officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad paid tribute to Edward M. Fisher, retired assistant road foreman of engines of the Erie and Ashtabula division, Saturday night at the St. Margarets hall in the seventh ward at a retirement party.

The evening's program was climaxed by the presentation of a beautiful television set to Mr. Fisher and a large box of candy for his wife.

Assistant superintendent of the Lake division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Marion Street, acted as toastmaster for the evening and introduced the speakers, all of whom had words of praise for the work that Mr. Fisher did in his 49 years and seven months with the railroad.

Talks By Friends

Short talks were made by W. H. Outcalt, assistant road foreman of engines; S. R. Hoffman, assistant trainmaster; R. E. O'Donnell, retired enginehouse foreman; W. R. Pope, engineer; A. R. Marsh, assistant master mechanic of the Eastern division; J. T. Penman, enginehouse foreman; R. B. Danjelson, captain of police; W. A. Trimble, assistant division engineer.

Mr. Trimble made the presentation of the television set and gift for Mrs. Fisher.

After the presentation refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent spinning yarns and playing cards.

Mr. Fisher retired from the railroad on November 1, 1949, after 49 years of service. In the time that he was with the Erie and Ashtabula division he served under 21 different superintendents. He read their names in the order that they served at the New Castle office.

He expressed his gratitude to the group and said that the one person responsible for his years of loyal service to the railroad was his wife.

Fuchs Communist All His Life Says Father In Berlin

By RICHARD S. WEIL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—The father of Klaus Fuchs has asserted that his physicist son, jailed in London on charges of passing atomic secrets to Russia, has been an active communist all his life.

Prof. Emil Fuchs, gray-haired 70-year-old professor of theology at Leipzig university in the Soviet occupation zone, was shocked visibly when told by International News Service yesterday of his son's arrest. Prof. Fuchs said:

"If he did it, it was not because of money. He doesn't care for money."

"He did it only because of idealism in his regard for communism."

Prof. Fuchs, a former preacher in the eastern zone of Germany, said that his son was released from an alien detention camp in Canada during World War II to work on atomic problems on the recommendation of Professor Albert Einstein. He added that Einstein did not know of the communist connection of the younger Fuchs.

WONDERFUL PUBLICITY FOR OLD MET

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—(INS)—For the past twenty years, to my certain knowledge, the Metropolitan opera has been stewing in its own juices like a clam in a steam bath.

More recently, it has been stewing happily on the front burners of any and all newspapers as Rudolf Bing, who takes over as general manager of the opera next season, and singers Helen Traubel, Kirsten Flagstad and Lauritz Melchior have alternately kissed or pouted, as the case may be.

Publicity For Old 'Met'

It has all been wonderful publicity for the old Met, and for the Mesdames Traubel and Flagstad and the Messrs. Bing and Melchior. On the off chance that I might find out what all the shooting is about or what these temperamental Katzenjammer Kids will do next, I attended Mr. Bing's recent press conference at the Met (a gloomy cavern filled with the sound of typewriters and odd-lot sopranos, echoing from cubby holes, on non-matinee days, as was this).

A fine and instructive conference it turned out to be, too. Mr. Bing, a thin, trim, dapper man, uninhibited by either fear or humility, did two things.

He laid down the law with a snap that left no doubt as to who will be cock of the walk at the Met during the Bing regime and he outlined as interesting as revolutionary and as intelligent a revision of Met procedures as opera enthusiasts could hope.

High-Class Prima Donna

During the hour-long conference, it struck me that the Met had acquired not only a new boss capable of cracking the whip like a lion tamer, but a really first-rate, high-class prima donna. This is something opera has missed in the lack-luster years since Mary Garden retired and the sopranos and tenors have more or less learned to behave like little ladies and gentlemen.

I have yet to learn if Mr. Bing is addicted to milk baths, Russian wolf hounds or Yogi, as he seemed prone to mount a high horse even to questions from those reporters whose intent and musical line was pure. I felt that I would probably be sent from the room in disgrace if I asked the impressario if he favored palamas, old-fashion night-gown or slept raw.

But the glossy, youngish Mr. Bing failed to humanize readily none but could have the utmost admiration for his plan to reform the subscription season by breaking it into two nine-week seasons instead of one eighteen week season—a plan bound to put opera going within far easier financial reach of many persons.

Seems Excellent

His plan to reduce the number of operas and improve those given both visually and audibly seems excellent to this amateur opera goer.

Chicago Snipper Cuts Women's Hair

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Jack the Snipper, who has a phobia for female tresses, is plying his trade in Chicago.

Not even a marine veteran of the assault on Iwo Jima could halt his operations last night.

The unidentified man with the shears wrestled loose from the stone grip of Eugene Parsons after his wife, Maxine, let out a hoot and holler during the showing of the film "The Sands of Iwo Jima."

The housewife felt someone brush against her waist-length tresses and heard a metallic snip. She looked around and saw a man in a mackinaw slipping up the aisle of the movie house.

Parsons took off in hot pursuit in the best marine corps tradition and caught his man outside the theater. But a crowd of bystanders broke up the combat before police arrived.

Jack escaped on the double with his loot—a two-inch whiff of hair which measured about eight inches long.

International Angle Develops In Claim For Recluse's Estate

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—(INS)

—An international angle has developed among claimants to the $40,000 estate of a middle-aged recluse found dead last Wednesday in the cluttered kitchen of his Philadelphia home.

Coroner Joseph Ominsky revealed that the Polish government apparently will seek to claim the fortune of Andrew Krasczski, former rug mill employee.

Ominsky said the Polish consul, Jan Galewicz, had filed a legal document enjoining the granting of letters of administration in the case until a formal hearing is held. Krasczski, about 50, was dead about two weeks when his body was discovered by a rent collector. Bank books showing deposits of about $40,000 were found in the kitchen.

Ominsky said he learned the consul intended to claim the recluse has relatives in Poland entitled to the estate. Galewicz refused to answer telephone queries to his New York office.

Five persons, all of Trenton, N. J., claim the estate, asserting they are first cousins of Krasczski. It was reported the money was the residue of a settlement paid Krasczski's late mother 40 years ago for the death of her husband in a railroad accident.

thor Handford that he's "looking for a nice English girl for a wife."

American girls, Ellis complained, "seem to want too much out of life. A decent home and a good husband aren't good enough to satisfy them."

"They want big cars to drive, lots of money to spend—and won't work."

The sergeant explained that he was stationed near Lichfield during the war, and that the "girls there are so naturally pretty they always remained in my mind as the most beautiful in the world."

Air Force Sergeant Desires English Wife

LONDON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—An American Air Force sergeant appealed to an English mayor to help him find a British wife because he's tired of gold-digging American women who only "want big cars ... lots of money, and won't work."

Court House

To Adopt Budget Monday, Feb. 13

Fifth Ward In Ellwood City Divided, Now Two Precincts

Monday, February 13, will probably be the day the county budget will be adopted.

The budget has been on public view since January 14, under the law must be on view for twenty days before adoption.

Thus far no citizens, outside perhaps of a few court house attaches have come to the commissioners' office to see where the money is coming from and where it is going.

DIVIDE WARD

On Saturday Judge W. Walter Braham signed an order dividing the Fifth ward of Ellwood City into two precincts. The ward had 971 registered voters for the November 9 election, a number about twice the size the commissioners want precincts.

With two precincts voting will be expedited and the returns made more quickly.

There is little change in the condition of Miss Grace Woodworth, who is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, undergoing treatment for a fractured hip, received in a fall in her home.

Her sister, Mrs. Eugene J. Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, who was called here at the time of the accident, and who has been home during the past week, will return to New Castle today. She will visit at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Prothonotary and Mrs. John A. Edgar.

OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE

None But Police Sergeants Can Use Telephone No. 8

Police headquarters is one place where information given concisely and quickly may prevent burglary and possibly a fatality, hence sergeants at headquarters necessarily must be alert, discerning and "on the job" every minute while on duty. They are required to know a lot of information which is decidedly essential in apprehending law-breakers.

For instance, here is what a police sergeant must know: Telephone numbers of all constables in the city and county; the state police, sheriff, county detectives and FBI; Butler state police and Youngstown police headquarters; railroad stations, the bus terminal and hospitals; all rural free delivery routes and highway routes for the purpose of establishing road-blocks.

When a complaint concerning an act of outlary, bordering on the unusual, flows into police headquarters, the information is first radioed to all city police scout autos. Lights are flashed on all city police Gamewell boxes to notify patrolmen in outlying section of the city of the occurrence.

The state police, sheriff and county detective are telephoned and if the FBI is concerned, they, too, receive a telephone report.

The message which goes to the state police results in a radio call to their cars on highways and a message follows to surrounding cities via teletype.

Hence, it may readily be seen why a police sergeant in time of emergency is as busy as a one-armed paperhanger with the itch. He has no time to answer such calls as:

"Are the hills ashed?"

"Is it raining downtown?"

"What time is it?"

"Can you call Mr. — to the telephone?"

Some well-meaning people ask questions like the foregoing, unmindful that they are clogging the machine of justice.

Because of the various duties, which includes docketing prisoners and compiling a report of their wrong-doing, sergeants are kept busy, hence Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna has issued an order barring the use of No. 8, police headquarters, to all persons, excepting sergeants and the officer-in-charge.

Hickory Township Volunteer firemen were called at 6 a. m. today to the slaughter house of James Crisel, on the Harlansburg road where they found the building on fire.

Firemen were unable to save the structure which was burning but were able to save adjoining buildings from destruction. Damage to the slaughter house was estimated at $2,000 by the firemen.

According to Tom West, fire chief of the department, unauthorized persons called additional township firemen to the scene causing needless confusion and extra work for the other township firemen. Neshannock township department came on the scene through the call and their services were appreciated by the firemen who could have fought the blaze with their own equipment.

Mr. West stated that he or some of his men would call extra equipment or additional departments if they are needed to combat a blaze. He asked residents not call any department but the one in their own township to avoid confusion and perhaps accidents and injury to firemen answering the calls.

Britain Starts Recheck Of All Bomb Workers

LONDON, Feb. 6.—(INS)—Britain proceeded today with a thorough recheck of all personnel working on top-secret projects as the result of the arrest of Dr. Klaus Fuchs on charges of giving atomic secrets to Russia.

Meanwhile, British ambassador to the U. S., Sir Oliver Franks, was expected to give Fortin Secretary Bevin first-hand information on the current American attitude on hydrogen bomb information exchange.

Hitherto, Britain has requested free exchange of all information regarding the progress of experiments and research. In view of the sensational arrest of Dr. Fuchs it is expected the talks between the men will be kept secret.

Officials Aghast
British officials were aghast at the American congressional and press reaction to the arrest of the German-born physicist on Friday on espionage charges.

For this reason, it is believed the Bow Street pre-trial hearing Friday will be restricted to newsmen only for a brief repetition of the charges while relevant evidence will be heard secretly. The same procedure is expected to be followed in the subsequent trial at old Bailey Court.

Officials in the public prosecutor's office and Scotland Yard refused to comment on the statement of Fuchs' father that his son has been a lifelong Communist.

DRIVER IS HELD

Francis P. Drake, Richelleu avenue, was arrested by Lieutenant Thompson and Policeman James on a charge of operating a motor car in Mahoning avenue while intoxicated, at 12:45 a. m. February 5. He was charged by city police with the offense before Alderman J. C. Kennedy. He pleaded not guilty and waived the case into Lawrence county court.

Engineers Plan For State Convention Here May 19 And 20

Members of the mid-western chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers enjoyed an outstanding dinner and business session at The Castleton hotel on Saturday evening. The first session for 1950, drew a banner attendance to the meeting.

Following the dinner event, reports of various convention committees were heard in which progress for the 1950 state convention which will be held here, May 19 and 20, was told. Excellent progress on the convention plans has been made and it is expected that many will be on hand for the convention sessions.

The group was favored in having present, John T. West, Jr., of the state society who complimented the group on the excellent progress they are making in the local chapter. In his main address, which followed Mr. West spoke ably on "Your Ethics Are Showing." He stated that the engineers must practice good ethics in their profession as well as any others if they are to make progress.

During the business period, three new members were welcomed into the society. A short period of memorial was held for the late W. Keith McAfee who was a member of the Engineers Society. Speaking in his memory were Engineer North of Zelenople and Engineers, Lloyd W. Strayer and Leslie Wilson of this city.

It is hoped that the main speaker for the convention can be announced in a very short time, general chairman, Lloyd W. Strayer of this city reported.

BURGLAR TRAP CATCHES HOUSEWIFE

CHICAGO, ILL.—The burglar catches on Mrs. Clara Kelly's apartment windows have proved too efficient. While washing windows, she pulled one down too far and the anti-prowl device caught, trapping Mrs. Kelly. Her daughter Linda (left), one and a half, and niece Sandy, two and a half, were powerless to help her. She sat with her upper half exposed to freezing winds until neighbors began to wonder why she sat there for 40 minutes and came to the rescue.

Bergman-Rossellini Affair Is Assailed By Camp Hill Pastor

HARRISBURG, Feb. 6.—(INS)—The country-wide list of clergymen heaping red hot coals of condemnation on Ingrid Bergman-Rossellini affair today included the pastor of the Presbyterian church in nearby Camp Hill.

In a searing sermon at both his Sunday services, the Rev. Spencer B. Smith lashed the celebrated affaire d'amour along with the Rita Hayworth-Ally Khan romance and the handling of confessed "impulse" slayer Edward L. Gibbs, now under arrest in Lancaster for the murder of Marion Baker.

"The rush of murders and adulteries paraded before us day after day is an outrage to an aroused Christian conscience," the minister declared.

"The way the motion picture industry continues to use discredited actors and actresses is an outrage to Christian decency and a demoralizing influence on youth," he said.

"We have a right to expect heroes and heroines of the screen to measure up morally to their positions.

The Presbyterian pastor said when a murderer is arrested these days, lawyers rush in psychiatrists in an effort "to minimize something morally offensive and make palatable something rotten."

"But when the causes are named, there usually appear only long, high sounding names for what our fathers called by its true name—sin," he declared.

The zipper was invented by Whitcomb L. Judson in 1893 and was later improved and patented by Gideon L. Sundback.

HANKS BATTLING ELLWOOD TONIGHT IN LEAGUE GAME

Hank A. C. basketball team extended their winning streak to 17 straight games by downing the BoBo Eagles of Grove City 52-47 in an exciting ball game at Grove City. This was the 18th win in 19 starts for the Hanks this season.

The Hanks commanded play all through the first half taking a 17-10 lead in the first period and stretching the lead to 33-19 at halftime.

The Hanks will return to Ellwood this evening for a District League game with the North Side team of Ellwood beginning at 8:30. Coach Joe Factor will be priming his boys for the all important game on Wednesday against the East Brook Boosters at East Brook.

Franklin Battles Washington Tuesday

Benjamin Franklin travels to George Washington, Sharon plays at "Arrell and Union plays at Butler in Section 17 Junior WPIAL games Tuesday. Mahoning plays at Ellwood in a non-league game. The Franklin-Washington clash tops the local card with both teams still battling to remain in the league race. The Patriots won the first game between the two 38-32 at Franklin.

The game also is important in settling the mythical city championship. So far all three teams in the city have won one and lost one to their intra-city foes.

In the league Franklin holds a 5-2 record as compared to a 5-3 record for Washington.

Sharon-Farrell
Up at Farrell the Little Tigers of Sharon battle Farrell for a tie for first place. Sharon holds a 6-2 record and Farrell 7-1 record. A victory for Sharon will not help the cause of the Little Tigers but will also be a boost for the county teams.

The first time the teams met the Tigers came out on top 27-25, the only defeat that the Steelers have suffered all year.

Union tries once more to gain win No. 1 when it travels to Butler. Chances are against the Little Scotties coming home with a victory, however. They've had rough going all season long and have lost their leading scorer—Landy Peluso—for the remainder of the season.

Butler won the first game with union 37-22.

Ten Athletics

Mack predicted that most of the ten unsigned players would go through the contract-signing formalities shortly.

First baseman Ferris Fain agreed to contract terms via telephone yesterday, Mack said.

New York Stocks

Stock Market Irregular Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—(INS)—
The stock market fluctuated irregularly today as the widening coal walkout dampened buying enthusiasm in Wall Street.

Many of the recent favorites were profit-taking pressure, but price changes were narrow. U. S.
Steel was off 1/4 at 30 3/4; General
Motors unchanged at 76 1/4; General
Electric off 1/4 at 44 1/4; and Montgomery Ward unchanged at 59.

Eastern Kodak attracted buying and rose 1/2 point to 47 1/2, but Commercial Solvents continued under pressure with a new decline of 1/2 point to 17 1/2 on reports the dividend would be cut.

Skelly Oil was a favorite in the oil, rising a point to 110. Standard of New Jersey eased 1/4 to 69 1/2, and Socony-Vacuum and Sinclair were unchanged.

Coppers were firm. Rails were mostly lower.

The bond market held narrowly.
Selected rail issues were improved.

Commodities sagged. Wheat was off 3/4, corn down 5/8, and cotton was 55 cents a bale lower.

Princeton Teacher Ends Life In Game Of 'Russian Roulette'

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 6.—(INS)—Funeral arrangements were being made today for the brilliant sociable Princeton University teacher who killed himself Saturday night by playing a losing game of "Russian roulette".

The 25-year-old assistant professor, Allison William Bunkley, calmly put a bullet through his brain after pulling the trigger harmlessly several times despite the pleas of his horrified friends to stop "showing off".

Bunkley, celebrating his 25th birthday Saturday night with five Princeton friends and a local girl, was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Princeton in 1934. He was a grandson of the late U. S. Sen. John Sharpe Williams of Mississippi and a son of Adm. Joel W. Bunkley.

Police said Bunkley and his friends gathered at his apartment following a college basketball game and after several drinks the handsome 200-pound teacher went into his bedroom and returned with a .32 calibre revolver.

Placing the weapon, which contained one bullet, against his head, Bunkley spun the chamber and clicked the trigger several times. His frightened friends pleaded with him to stop. He reportedly said "just once more," and then fired the fatal shot.

Bunkley's roommate, David Heitner, phoned police but failed to give the apartment address. Police used up valuable time tracing the call before they could send an ambulance. Bunkley died on the way to the hospital.
